CHAPTER 1

Ancient Egypt & the Pyramids

Date: 3000 BC

THE STORY:

Imagine building a 50-story structure with NO machines, NO electricity, and NO computers! That's exactly what the ancient Egyptians did. The Great Pyramid of Giza took 20 years and 100,000 workers. They invented paper (papyrus), writing (hieroglyphics), and advanced mathematics. Egyptian civilization lasted over 3,000 years!

KEY VOCABULARY:

pyramid, pharaoh, hieroglyphics, papyrus, Nile

EVENT 1: THINK DEEPER

- * How does this event still affect your life today?
- * What can we learn from this to make the future better?

CHAPTER 2

Greek Democracy

Date: 500 BC

THE STORY:

In ancient Athens, citizens could directly vote on laws. This was the world's first democracy! Before this, kings and dictators made all decisions. The Greeks also gave us the Olympics, philosophy (love of wisdom), theater, and the foundations of science and math. Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle shaped how we think.

KEY VOCABULARY:

democracy, philosophy, citizen, vote, Athens

EVENT 2: THINK DEEPER

WHAT IF IT HADN'T HAPPENED?

Without Greek democracy, modern governments might all be dictatorships.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

THE STORY:

Rome started as a tiny village and grew into the largest empire the Western world had ever seen. Romans built incredible roads (50,000 miles!), aqueducts, concrete buildings, and legal systems. Their language (Latin) evolved into Italian, Spanish, French, Portuguese, and Romanian. Roman engineering still influences us today.

KEY VOCABULARY:

empire, republic, senate, gladiator, aqueduct

EVENT 3: THINK DEEPER

WHAT IF IT HADN'T HAPPENED?

Without Rome, we might not have roads, sewers, or modern legal systems.

THE STORY:

Before Gutenberg's printing press, books were copied BY HAND - taking months per book! The press could print thousands of copies quickly and cheaply. Suddenly, common people could read and learn. This led to the Scientific Revolution, the Reformation, and eventually the Enlightenment. Knowledge was no longer just for the rich.
