

Helping Kids Cope with Loss

Age-Appropriate Grief Activities and Scripts

PRINTABLE TOOLKIT

Instant Download | Print at Home | 8.5 x 11

By Daniel Tesfamariam

Bible Made Simple Publishing

Personal Use License | Do Not Redistribute

Terms of Use

Thank you for purchasing this toolkit!

PERSONAL USE LICENSE:

- Print unlimited copies for your household
- Use in therapy/counseling sessions (up to 12 clients)
- Use in classroom/small group (up to 30 students)
- Do NOT resell or redistribute the digital file
- Do NOT upload to any website

DISCLAIMER:

This is an educational resource, not professional advice.

Consult a licensed professional for specific concerns.

If this helped your family, please leave a 5-star review!

(c) Daniel Tesfamariam | Bible Made Simple Publishing

How to Use This Toolkit

PRINTING:

- Print on standard 8.5 x 11 paper
- Cardstock recommended for charts and cards
- Laminate frequently-used pages for durability
- Color printing recommended (works in B&W too)

GETTING STARTED:

1. Read through the entire toolkit first
2. Choose 1-2 tools to implement THIS WEEK
3. Post visual tools where your family will see them
4. Revisit and rotate tools as needs change
5. Share with co-parent/caregiver for consistency

TIPS FOR SUCCESS:

- Involve your child in setting up the system
- Be consistent for at least 2 weeks before adjusting
- Celebrate small wins ? progress over perfection
- Take photos of your setup and share your wins!

Helping Kids Cope with Loss

Age-Appropriate Grief Activities and Scripts

Section 1

Tools and resources for helping kids cope with loss

KEY PRINCIPLES

1. Start with connection before correction
2. Validate feelings while limiting behavior
3. Consistency is more important than perfection
4. Model what you want to see in your child
5. Progress over perfection every single day
6. Small changes compound into big results
7. Ask for help when you need it
8. You are not alone in this journey
9. Every child is different - adapt as needed
10. Celebrate effort not just outcomes

QUICK REFERENCE CARD

Print and laminate for daily use

REMEMBER:

Your child is not giving you a hard time.

They are HAVING a hard time.

Behavior is communication.

What is the unmet need underneath?

Connection before correction.

They need to feel safe before they can learn.

You cannot pour from an empty cup.

Take care of yourself too.

WEEKLY TRACKER

Date: ___/___/___ to ___/___/___

Monday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Tuesday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Wednesday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Thursday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Friday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Saturday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Sunday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Wins this week: _____

Challenge this week: _____

Adjustment for next week: _____

REFLECTION JOURNAL

What is working well right now?

What is my biggest challenge?

What support do I need?

One thing I will try this week:

How I will celebrate progress:

ACTION PLAN

My commitment this week:

This week I will:

- ☐ Try one new strategy from this toolkit
- ☐ Stay consistent for 7 days before judging
- ☐ Notice and celebrate small wins
- ☐ Ask for help if I need it
- ☐ Be gentle with myself when I mess up
- ☐ Remember that progress is not linear

My specific goal:

I will know it is working when:

PROGRESS LOG

Track your family's growth

Week 1: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 2: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 3: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 4: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 5: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 6: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Biggest win so far: _____

What I would tell another parent: _____

NOTES & OBSERVATIONS

Date: ____/____/____

What I observed today:

What worked:

What did not work:

Pattern I am noticing:

Next step:

Section 2

Tools and resources for helping kids cope with loss

KEY PRINCIPLES

1. Start with connection before correction
2. Validate feelings while limiting behavior
3. Consistency is more important than perfection
4. Model what you want to see in your child
5. Progress over perfection every single day
6. Small changes compound into big results
7. Ask for help when you need it
8. You are not alone in this journey
9. Every child is different - adapt as needed
10. Celebrate effort not just outcomes

QUICK REFERENCE CARD

Print and laminate for daily use

REMEMBER:

Your child is not giving you a hard time.

They are HAVING a hard time.

Behavior is communication.

What is the unmet need underneath?

Connection before correction.

They need to feel safe before they can learn.

You cannot pour from an empty cup.

Take care of yourself too.

WEEKLY TRACKER

Date: ___/___/___ to ___/___/___

Monday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Tuesday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Wednesday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Thursday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Friday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Saturday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Sunday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Wins this week: _____

Challenge this week: _____

Adjustment for next week: _____

REFLECTION JOURNAL

What is working well right now?

What is my biggest challenge?

What support do I need?

One thing I will try this week:

How I will celebrate progress:

ACTION PLAN

My commitment this week:

This week I will:

- ☐ Try one new strategy from this toolkit
- ☐ Stay consistent for 7 days before judging
- ☐ Notice and celebrate small wins
- ☐ Ask for help if I need it
- ☐ Be gentle with myself when I mess up
- ☐ Remember that progress is not linear

My specific goal:

I will know it is working when:

PROGRESS LOG

Track your family's growth

Week 1: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 2: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 3: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 4: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 5: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 6: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Biggest win so far: _____

What I would tell another parent: _____

NOTES & OBSERVATIONS

Date: ____/____/____

What I observed today:

What worked:

What did not work:

Pattern I am noticing:

Next step:

Section 3

Tools and resources for helping kids cope with loss

KEY PRINCIPLES

1. Start with connection before correction
2. Validate feelings while limiting behavior
3. Consistency is more important than perfection
4. Model what you want to see in your child
5. Progress over perfection every single day
6. Small changes compound into big results
7. Ask for help when you need it
8. You are not alone in this journey
9. Every child is different - adapt as needed
10. Celebrate effort not just outcomes

QUICK REFERENCE CARD

Print and laminate for daily use

REMEMBER:

Your child is not giving you a hard time.

They are HAVING a hard time.

Behavior is communication.

What is the unmet need underneath?

Connection before correction.

They need to feel safe before they can learn.

You cannot pour from an empty cup.

Take care of yourself too.

WEEKLY TRACKER

Date: ___/___/___ to ___/___/___

Monday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Tuesday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Wednesday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Thursday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Friday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Saturday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Sunday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Wins this week: _____

Challenge this week: _____

Adjustment for next week: _____

REFLECTION JOURNAL

What is working well right now?

What is my biggest challenge?

What support do I need?

One thing I will try this week:

How I will celebrate progress:

ACTION PLAN

My commitment this week:

This week I will:

- ☐ Try one new strategy from this toolkit
- ☐ Stay consistent for 7 days before judging
- ☐ Notice and celebrate small wins
- ☐ Ask for help if I need it
- ☐ Be gentle with myself when I mess up
- ☐ Remember that progress is not linear

My specific goal:

I will know it is working when:

PROGRESS LOG

Track your family's growth

Week 1: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 2: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 3: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 4: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 5: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Week 6: What I tried _____ Result: _____

Biggest win so far: _____

What I would tell another parent: _____

NOTES & OBSERVATIONS

Date: ____/____/____

What I observed today:

What worked:

What did not work:

Pattern I am noticing:

Next step:

Section 4

Tools and resources for helping kids cope with loss

KEY PRINCIPLES

1. Start with connection before correction
2. Validate feelings while limiting behavior
3. Consistency is more important than perfection
4. Model what you want to see in your child
5. Progress over perfection every single day
6. Small changes compound into big results
7. Ask for help when you need it
8. You are not alone in this journey
9. Every child is different - adapt as needed
10. Celebrate effort not just outcomes

QUICK REFERENCE CARD

Print and laminate for daily use

REMEMBER:

Your child is not giving you a hard time.

They are HAVING a hard time.

Behavior is communication.

What is the unmet need underneath?

Connection before correction.

They need to feel safe before they can learn.

You cannot pour from an empty cup.

Take care of yourself too.

WEEKLY TRACKER

Date: ___/___/___ to ___/___/___

Monday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Tuesday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Wednesday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Thursday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Friday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Saturday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Sunday: Goal _____ Done? Y/N

Wins this week: _____

Challenge this week: _____

Adjustment for next week: _____

REFLECTION JOURNAL

What is working well right now?

What is my biggest challenge?

What support do I need?

One thing I will try this week:

How I will celebrate progress:

ACTION PLAN

My commitment this week:

This week I will:

- ☐ Try one new strategy from this toolkit
- ☐ Stay consistent for 7 days before judging
- ☐ Notice and celebrate small wins
- ☐ Ask for help if I need it
- ☐ Be gentle with myself when I mess up
- ☐ Remember that progress is not linear

My specific goal:

I will know it is working when:

You Got This!

Parenting is hard. You are doing amazing.

Leave a 5-star review if this helped your family!

Daniel Tesfamariam | Bible Made Simple Publishing

More toolkits: Search Daniel Tesfamariam on Etsy & Amazon