Story 1: Saying Please

[TIGRINYA TEXT: Bejakha/Bejakhi]

[ILLUSTRATION: asking politely]

Abe wants a glass of water from his mom.

He remembers to say, 'Please may I have water?'

Mom smiles and gives him a big glass of cold water.

Saying 'please' shows respect and makes people happy to help.

[TIGRINYA TRANSLATION:

Story 2: Saying Thank You

[TIGRINYA TEXT: Yekeneyeley]

[ILLUSTRATION: receiving a gift gratefully]

Grandma gives Sara a beautiful new book.

Sara says, 'Thank you, Grandma! I love it!'

Grandma hugs Sara and feels happy that Sara is grateful.

Saying 'thank you' shows we appreciate what others do for us.

Story 4: Waiting Your Turn

[TIGRINYA TEXT: Terai-kha Tsennah]

[ILLUSTRATION: children in a queue]

The children line up for the slide at the playground.

Miriam wants to go first, but others were there before her.

She waits patiently for her turn, and soon it is time!

Waiting our turn is fair and shows respect for others.
